

Postponement of “2021DMP Greater Bay Area Industrial Expo”

Dear Exhibitors, Visitors & Partners,

Based on the guidelines on exhibitions & forums from Press conference of the Joint Prevention and Control Mechanism of the State Council, Baoan District, Shenzhen Government officially informed the organizers on November 9 that all exhibitions at Shenzhen World Exhibition & Convention Center are not allowed to be held in November. As the pandemic situation is still severe, in order to protect the health and safety of exhibitors, visitors & partners, we are sorry to announce that DMP Greater Bay Area Industrial Expo which intended to be held on November 23~26, 2021, will be postponed to December 27~30, 2021 at the same venue.

Despite this difficult time, we are still optimistic and confident that the pandemic will soon be under control and both exhibitions & forums will be organized normally again! Since the first DMP in 1999, through over 20years of development, we have strived to create an integrated showcase platform for high-end manufacturing industry, so as to contribute to the development of high-end manufacturing industry. We are grateful for all your support.

We are sorry for the inconvenience caused by the postponement. Please reschedule your itinerary and transport of the exhibits accordingly. Thank you for your understanding. Should you have any enquiry, please feel free to contact us.
